HOCKEY CLUB

Pueblo, COLO. - The Pueblo Bulls is extremely excited to announce the addition of Marty Wakelyn to its staff as Director of Player Personnel and Development for the Pueblo Bulls Hockey Club.

Marty's extensive background in playing and coaching at the highest levels will help us recruit the best players moving forward while marketing what the Bulls organization has done to date. Not only will Marty help with recruiting efforts, but he will also assist with developing each athlete through designed metrics, support, and mentorship.

A native of Victoria, B.C., Marty was an All-American at Colorado College as a goaltender and still holds goaltender save records to this day. Marty also played for the NY Islanders Organization until an injury cut his career short. Marty coached at the Major Junior level, Junior B, and Minor hockey across his 30+ year tenure behind the bench.

Tyler Tuneberg, GM of the Pueblo Bulls, said, "We are extremely excited about having Marty as part of our organization, not only as a previous player at the highest level, coach at the highest Junior Levels, but as a parent of a prior player who understands what a great organization should look like, and believes we are that organization. Marty's son Doug played in Pueblo a few years ago, and Marty was impressed with what the organization did and wanted to be part of it. Marty felt the reason to have Doug come here was because of the staff and organization and its professionalism, and Marty will help make sure we stay that organization!"

"Although I feel like I have been part of the organization from Doug being here and me calling the games, I felt I had more to give, and there wasn't a better organization that I wanted to be a part of. When players look at their options, there is no better experience on and off the ice than Pueblo." said Wakelyn. "I look forward to bringing in great talent as well as great individuals and helping take this organization to new heights. The next level of hockey at the NCDC Tier II will be exciting and real rewarding. I am looking forward to getting started now."

The Pueblo Bulls is a Junior Hockey Tier II Franchise in the NCDC. The NCDC currently boasts 18 franchises from Maine to Colorado/Utah placing 100+ players in college hockey each season. The USPHL and NCDC are fully united and dedicated to the mission of player development and advancement to college hockey.
