Pueblo, COLO. -The Pueblo Bulls are excited to announce 2001-born Bulls Defenseman, Connor Williams, has committed to play for NCAA DIV III Arcadia University.

The South Lyon, Michigan native spent two seasons with the Bulls after winning an NAPHL 18U Championship with Meijer AAA Hockey. Williams was named an Assistant Captain this season and was a staple on the blue line. Williams compiled 10 goals and 34 assists in his two seasons, while exemplifying leadership and community excellence in, Pueblo.

“Connor is a prepared leader who is capable of nearly anything he sets his mind to,” said Bulls General Manager Tyler Tuneberg. “He continually grew each day and always pushed himself to be a better hockey player and person. Connor was tremendous for us in his two seasons as a Bull, he came in and did everything we asked of him and more!”

“A lot of kids get caught up that they have to play tier 2 hockey to move on to college. That isn’t the case here in Pueblo. It doesn’t matter what league or what level it is. It only matters about your development as a person and player. And here in Pueblo that is exactly what they strive for,” said Williams. “None of this would be possible if it wasn’t for the amazing community and billets who make it all happen.”

“The Bulls organization is very proud of Connor, and we are excited to see him make the jump to the DIV III level. We can’t thank Connor enough for his time as a, Pueblo Bull and his commitment on the ice and in the community. The Knights got a Grade “A” player and even better person!” added Tuneberg.
