

Pueblo, COLO. - The Pueblo Bulls are excited to announce 2003-born Bulls Forward, Jack Hanson has committed to play for Concordia College Moorhead Minnesota NCAA DIV III.

The Minneapolis, Minnesota native was an elite playmaker and scorer for the Bulls in the 2023-24 season posting 16 goals and 38 assists for 54 points in 50 games.

“Jack was a tremendous player for us this past season,” said Bulls Head Coach Chris Wilhite. “Jack had an incredible scoring touch, playmaking ability and was reliable in all three zones. He was someone that we counted on in all situations of a game. Jack’s impact wasn’t only on the ice for us, he was a terrific kid that was involved in the community and someone that we relied upon to be a leader.”

“I am so thankful for the opportunity I got in Pueblo this year. Being my age out year I couldn’t have asked for a better year, the coaching staff, the billets, the fans, and my teammates made this season one of the best years of hockey for me.” said Hanson, “The coaching staff truly gave me everything I needed to succeed. Making sure we got fed every road trip, supplying the team with gear, and holding every player accountable to play their best. The coaching staff were always reaching out to college teams for me and all players. Thanks to them I was able to commit to Concordia college!”

“We are very excited to be able to help Jack to reach his goal of playing NCAA DIV III hockey. He is going to a great academic school and will be in a top end NCAA DIV III Conference in the MIAC. We look forward to continuing to watch Jack’s success on and off the ice!” added Wilhite.
