

Pueblo, COLO. - The Pueblo Bulls are excited to announce 2003-born Bulls Forward, Thomas Soucy has committed to play for King's College NCAA DIV III.

The Degelis, Quebec native was a staple on the Bulls and the Pueblo community for 3 years. Thomas is the Bulls all-time leader in games played (141), 3rd all time in goals (49), 2nd all time in assists (76) and 2nd all time in points (125).

"It's hard to put into words what Souc has meant for our program and the city of, Pueblo," said Bulls Head Coach Chris Wilhite. "Souc was not only an incredible player for us for 3 years but also made a huge impact on, Pueblo and the people in it. Souc was always someone that we could count on in the locker room and in the community."

"Words cannot describe how thankful I am for the past 3 years with the Bulls. For the coaches giving me the opportunity to become better and better every day as a player but also as a person." said Soucy, "The billets support and help you with everything that you need, and all become a real family with the players. The community is always going to show up no matter what and, they always make you feel appreciated and loved. That's why Pueblo is the best place to play junior hockey and I wouldn't change my 3 years in Pueblo for anything."

"We tremendously proud of Souc and his growth on and off the ice. We are very excited to be apart of his journey and help him move on to King's College and NCAA DIV III. We look forward to continuing to watch Souc progress on the ice and in the class room. King's got a terrific person and player!" added Wilhite.

The Pueblo Bulls are a JR 'A' U20 hockey team that plays out of Pueblo, Colorado. The Bulls have been in existence since 2019 and are members of the NCDC Tier II. The Bulls are a professionally run organization that is focused on winning a National Championship, developing young men into good citizens, and moving players on to JR 'A' Tier I, NCAADIV I and DIV III, as well as Professional hockey. The Bulls have built a winning tradition and play in front of the best fans in junior hockey.

Players interested in playing for the Pueblo Bulls next season or beyond can visit their website at www.pueblobullshockey.com or reach out to Head Coach Chris Wilhite at cwilhite@pueblobullshockey.com.